$500 REWARD!!!
DR. C. A. PERKINS & CO. continue to be consulted at their office, on Second street, between Main and Market, Louisville, Ky., relative to all diseases of a private or delicate nature.

By a long course of study, and practical experience of an unlimited extent, we have now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies which have never failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHOEA and Syphilis.
Beneath their treatment all the horrors of Fever and Inflammation, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhoia, Ulcers, Pain in the Region of Perineum, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Hemorrhoids, and the long train of frightful consequences attending this class of diseases, are made to become harmless as the simplest ailment of a child.

SEXUAL WEAKNESS—Dr. P. & C. devote a great part of their time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body, and mind, uniting the unfortunate individual for either business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Nervous Sight, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Early Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self-Denial, Timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating marriage, consult a physician of experience and skill, and be restored to health and happiness.
If Anger and Fever cured in twenty-four hours—warranted.

Letters addressed to Dr. C. A. Perkins & Co., Louisville, Ky., box 1219, Post Office post paid, and confidential, will receive immediate attention, and medicine sent to any part of the country, secure from observation.
The strictest secrecy observed.

sell FURNITURE so much cheaper than other dealers in the article. For the benefit of all we will explain. It is the impression at home

DOXON & GRAHAM
keep every kind, and persons wishing an "out-fit" for house keeping call on us and find in our store rooms almost every article necessary for house keeping, from a rolling pin up to a sugar cured ham. Table ware, silver, &c., &c. Then they want FURNI-TURE, consequently, we have been induced to keep always on hand a well selected stock of plain FUR-NITURE, not calculating from the proceeds of profit, but from the fact that a complete out fit, can be purchased at our house for house keeping, at less cost than from much trouble and many small bills—have for the accommodation of our customers recently enlarged our store room for house keeping, and will in future be able to offer inducements to all wishing to purchase—provided lowest figures be an inducement.
It would be needless to undertake for us to compile a catalogue of the articles we offer for sale in addition to FURNITURE, but feeling a desire to benefit the public, we venture to call attention to a very few, as follows.

The Chain Pump.
Decidedly the cheapest and most durable pump ever invented, and warranted to perform well when put up by us.
We are prepared to furnish Iron, Zinc, or Wood,

Atmospheric and Suction Pump.
This description of pump is generally well known they perform satisfactorily in raising water from cisterns, but their liability to freeze render them troublesome.

The Suction and Force Pump.
A most excellent pump upon the same principles as the Atmospheric pump, capable of lifting water thirty feet, and discharging it in any direction, and is not subject to freeze, but still this pump is also liable to freeze and burst unless the valve is opened by elevating the lever after pumping.

Earthen Tubes.
A new invention for sewers and drains, costing only six cents per foot—easily put down and very durable, certainly the best and cheapest drain ever invented.

REVISED STATUTES.

Mr. MOOREHEAD moved to strike out that section which provides that before the Commissioners and AG Hodges & Co. (the publishers) shall receive the benefit of this act, they shall relinquish their right and title to what is known as the "Revised Statutes"; rejected.

Messrs. MOOREHEAD, MITCHELL, GREGORY, ALLISON and MUSSELMAN advocated the bill.

Mr. ANDERSON moved to strike out $2,000 (the amount proposed to be paid to each commissioner) and insert $1,500.

He was not aware of any additional law or performed by the commissioners since the last session, and consequently could not see the reason for increasing the compensation to $2,000.

Mr. ALLISON was authorized to state for one of the commissioners, who lived in his (Allison's) county, that he never did express a willingness to receive merely $1,000; nor will such commissioner now receive that amount.

Mr. MUSSELMAN made the same statement in regard to another of the commissioners, living in Louisville.

The amendment of Mr. ANDERSON was then rejected—yeas, 53; nays, 41.

The bill then passed—yeas, 51; nays, 35.

Final Adjournment.

On motion of D. H. SMITH a committee was appointed to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate having completed its legislative business is now ready to adjourn without day—and that a committee had been appointed by the Senate to wait on the Governor, in conjunction with such committee as may be appointed by the H. R., and to inform him that the General Assembly is ready to adjourn, and to ask him if he has any other communication to this Legislature. Messrs. D. H. SMITH and WEIS were appointed to inform the H. R. of the readiness of the Senate to adjourn.

[A message was then received from the Governor announcing that he had signed all the bills presented to him which originated in the Senate.]

Mr. MOREHEAD of the H. R. informed the Senate that the H. R. was ready to adjourn, and had appointed a committee to act in conjunction with the Senate's committee to wait on the Governor and inform him the Legislature was ready to adjourn.

In a short time Mr. SMITH from the committee returned and informed the Senate that the Governor had requested the committee to say that he had no further official communication to make, but that he congratulated the General Assembly on the termination of their arduous labors, and he hoped their labors would be beneficial to the State and would meet the approval of their constituents, and he wished the members one and all health and happiness, and a safe return to the bosom of their respective families.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have been now engaged for more than two months in the business of legislation; many acts have been passed. I hope they may be for the best interests of the Commonwealth. I cannot let this occasion pass without returning my sincere thanks to the Senators (the words cannot express the feelings of my heart) for the kindness and courtesy extended to me. I also desire to return to the Senate my sincere thanks for their kindness and for the prompt and faithful discharge of their duties.

If I have done anything to wound the feelings of any one, I do so with an error of the head and not of the heart, and I do sincerely ask their forgiveness. We may never all meet again in this life, it is the desire of my heart that you may all enjoy happiness and prosperity in this life, and happiness in the life to come.

It is my duty now to declare the Senate adjourned sine die.

Mr. SIMMONS offered the following as an additional section to the bill:

Mr. SPEAKER resumed the chair at 3 1/2 o'clock.

Mr. KEEPER offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the Public Printer, and he is hereby directed to print all laws now in force in relation to Common Schools in pamphlet form, under the supervision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and that said Superintendent forward to the Common School Commission a number of said pamphlets equal to the number of School Districts in each county.

After the passage of a few local bills, and the refusal of sundry enrolled bills, a committee was appointed to wait upon the Governor to act in conjunction with a similar committee on this part of the Senate to inform him that both bodies had finished their legislative business, and were ready to receive any communication he may have to make.

In a few moments the committee returned and reported through Mr. MOOREHEAD, that the Governor had no other communications to make, and that they were requested by his Excellency to tender to the House his warmest wishes for the welfare and prosperity of each individual member.

The Legislature adjourned sine die yesterday, about ten minutes after 5 P. M. In the House, to the few members who remained, Speaker Wintermuth delivered a neat and appropriate valedictory. We did not hear Bibb of the Senate. We suppose, however, that both will be published.

Much work has been done in the last session, and a good deal that ought to have been left undone. On the whole, we think the State, or at least the State Treasury, would have been at this time in a much better condition if this Legislature had never met. The Governor thanks to his democratic statesmanship and unswerving integrity, has saved us from the evil of an inflated currency that threatened the State with ruin. But other and numerous acts of bad legislation during the just ended session will hang forever on the skirts of expiring whiggery, and added to the weight of old sins will help to sink it beyond the hope of resurrection. Whig statesmanship and oratory have been at a low ebb this winter the lowest yet. But the whigs have made amends for this failure, intolerance and dishonesty towards their political opponents.

The poor fellows die hard as the infamous gerrymander and other acts of a political nature fully attest. We fancied when he listened to the Speakers very affecting remarks that we were delivering the valedictory of whig power in Kentucky, and we are not so certain that our fancy will not prove a fact. We believe that a majority are for a change.

Red Fox Scapls.

A debate occurred in the House, night before last between Capt. Parish of Morgan county who advocated the passage of a bill allowing a premium of $1 for red fox scapls, and Messrs. Jones, Hager and others.

Mr. Jones thought that the red foxes might be disposed of at less expense. His constituents were fond of fox hunting, and if the mountain people would bring their foxes over to Shelby, they might dispose of them to sportsmen at a good price. He wouldn't mind giving four dollars for one.

Mr. Parish thought the gentleman from Shelby didn't understand the nature of the brutes. No doubt he was fond of the sport; but he must inform him that these pestiferous animals, the red foxes, drove out of the country all the gray foxes, and committed awful havoc in the barn yard, the pig sty and the hen house. Whenever the red foxes make their appearance, the gray foxes, which are the ones sought after by sportsmen, suddenly disappear, and the gentleman of Shelby with two packs of hounds, he verily believed, couldn't catch a red fox in six months' chase. He assailed him there was no sport in trying.

Laying aside all jokes, this bill was of the greatest importance to his constituents. They were greatly annoyed by the depredations of these animals. Lambs, pigs and other young domestic animals scarcely ever escaped them. Their thefts and butcheries cost the farmer a good deal in his section of country, and as he believed, that this nuisance was well calculated to rid his constituents of a great evil, he hoped the representatives of those rich blue grass counties would lend their votes in favor of it. The mountains got but little of the good things of legislation. He promised the gentleman from Shelby the pleasure of hunting foxes to their heart's content, if they would visit Morgan; and he hoped they would sustain this bill.

And the bill passed.

As soon as we can get through with the Legislative proceedings, we shall endeavor to make our paper of more interest to the general reader, than it has been during the winter. News items, and editorials upon subjects of importance to such as those whose minds are not wholly engrossed with State politics will find space in our columns.

Which Party of the North are with the Abolitionists.—The following vote, by which the Nebraska Kansas Bill, passed the United States Senate, will show the relative position of the two parties in the North in regard to the rights of the South. Let no man hereafter charge the democracy of the North with abolition tendencies or sympathies. The vote upon the final passage was 37 yeas to 14 nays—a number of Senators being absent or not voting—as follows:

Yeas—Northern Democrats—Messrs. Brodhead, Cass, Dodge, of Iowa, Douglas, Gwin, Jones Norris, Pettit, Shields, Stuart, Thompson, Towner, Waller and Williams—14. Southern Democrats—Messrs. Atchison, Bayard, Brown, Butler, Clay, Dawson, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Hunter, Johnson, Mason, Rusk, Sebastian and Silledell—15. Southern Whigs—Messrs. Badger, Benjamin, Dixon, Geyer, Jones, Morton, Pratt, and Thompson—8. Northern Whigs—None.

Nays—Northern Democrats—Messrs. Dodge, of Wisconsin, Hamlin and James—3. Northern Whigs—Messrs. Fessenden, Fish, Sewall, Smith and Wade—5. Southern Democrats—Samuel Hudson, of Texas, Southern Whigs—John Bell, of Tennessee. Free Soilers—Messrs. Chase and Sumner.

Messrs. Bright, Toombs, Matheny and Allen were absent, the three former could have voted in favor of the bill, and the latter against it. The following gentlemen did not vote—Messrs. Phelps, Cooper, Everett, Wright and Clayton.

These votes show for themselves, and prove more conclusively than any reasoning how the matter stands, and destroys forever the hope expressed not long since by Horace Greeley, that arch abolitionist that this bill would obliterate the democratic party. Here is what he said:

"Not only will there be no more Whig National Conventions, but for the greater part of the Northern Democrats will equally forsake their old allies, and joining themselves into the new party of Freedom."

A slight mistake except in that there will be no more Whig Conventions." The vote of fourteen Northern Democrats for, and only three against the bill does not look much like they are about to "fling themselves into the new party of Freedom," nor to "forswear their old allegiance" to their country—to its Union, its peace, prosperity, and high hopes. Northern Whiggery, it seems, has been about the only thing that has thrown itself into the arms of the "new party," and has found a very congenial, warm, ardent embrace, and in exultation has kissed the hideous face of Abolition-Niggerdom. Be it so. We do not envy it its passion, nor do we expect anything else from its taste and propensities.

It is said that some of the members who did not vote at all, were sick and could not be in attendance. This may be true. But those who were not sick and refused to vote, on either side, should be held up to execration and scorn by all honest men of both parties. They are even worse than those who voted directly against the bill, for though they may be without principle, yet we must commend the courage that induced them to come out and say by vote how they stood, while the others without, both the principle to be in favor of a good measure, and the courage to acknowledge it. A Senator who skulks upon such a question as the Nebraska Bill should even be below contempt, and held by mankind as a high traitor to his constitutional duties. It was a question involving issues of vital importance to the whole people of this whole Union, and common honesty, and honor, and justice to their constituents, required that they should show their hands, and be men or mice. A few of them have failed to do so—on, they must reap their reward—the condemnation of all sincere and candid men.

KENTUCKY STATE FLAG.—Through inadvertency we have neglected, until now to notice the advent of Col. Sam Pike's new paper at Paris. Praise of the old veteran's enterprise and ability would be almost superfluous, yet we cannot pass it by without a word or two in its favor, as much on account of justice as courtesy. The "old fish" has not yet lost the fire and fervor of that youth which in the April of his days made him a terror to evil doers in politics, and drew around him hosts of true and devoted friends. His last democratic chief (the Flag) is a full grown, vigorous, and manly accession to the ranks of those who battle under the Flag of true democracy. We said it welcome to our midst of such men, with the full assurance that nowhere in Kentucky could be found a truer or more unflinching Pike-staff for that Flag, and know that he who holds it will bear it aloft through all the storms that may gather around its folds.

Woman's Rights.

As often as we have laughed at the folly of the actions of Woman's Rights Conventions, yet we cannot refrain from uttering some at this, the only instance in which they have been thoroughly asserted. We found it in some exchange, and concluded that if Mrs. Jones was not a whole Convention within herself, that the "right" ought to be advocated by somebody else:

T. Jones, Postscript: Whereas, my husband, Edward H. Jones has lately advertised that I have (lately left my bed and that he will pay no debts of his contracting, &c., this is to inform the public that the aforesaid Edward H. Jones had neither bed nor board for me to leave, he having been living at the expense of my father, and further, under pretence of procuring money to pay his way to Birmingham, Conn. and that he borrowed a dollar of my father, and with that paid for his living advertisement against me; and even after that dastardly act, he took all the money I had, and borrowed every cent in my mother's possession and left town.

For the past three months he has been kept from nakedness and starvation by the exertions of myself and relatives; he squandered in dissipation all the money his inborn laziness would allow him to earn.

The scamp need not to have advertised that he would not pay debts of his contracting, for the public very well know that he will not pay even his own.

He is a lazy, ungrateful, loafing scoundrel; not content with living at the expense of my relatives and borrowing their money, he publishes lies. He bel and boird! Indeed; if left to himself, his bed would be nothing but a board, and should not be much surprised if the bed he lies on be boards with a strong cross-beam overhead.

My neighbor of this Commonwealth published on yesterday, a list of the votes for and against the Nebraska Bill. Would it not have been better for him to have published his opinion of the merits of the bill? He has remained so silent upon the subject that we had begun to think he did not know that such a bill was before Congress, or that Messrs. Dixon and Thompson, our Senators, voted for it. Come out now, neighbor, and tell us whether you sustain their action, or whether you do not. Or, if you sympathize with those who incontinently deluged it in the Senate, be pleased to say so, and let us behold how gracefully you can straddle a political feud.

The old brick buildings on the corner of Broadway and Ann streets, occupied by our old friend Dr. Vallandigham, as an office, fell down yesterday with a tremendous crash, and the Doctor's drugs (we are happy to say not himself) were buried in its ruins.

A FLOOD ANTICIPATED.—It has been raining hereabouts almost incessantly since early Wednesday night. Neptune, whom we suppose God of the clouds, as well as of the sea, has taken rather too much notice of us of late for individual comfort. His watery sceptre is waving in triumph still over our heads, as if he thought we were inmates of the Noah family, and the rest of our denizens belonging to some aquatic genus. The Kentucky river, and the laughing streams, that are its tributaries, in this region, are "spreading" themselves with a perfect "rush," and bid fair to do a great deal of damage to property, &c., along their banks. We anticipate a great flood that was upon us in 1847.

Gov. POWELL, HIS VERSES.—[It has afforded us sincere pleasure to perceive the Message of Gov. Powell, vetoing the act to incorporate the Farmers' and Manufacturers' Bank of Kentucky.

The arguments advanced with reference to the impolicy of increasing the Banking capital of the State, especially in the laudable manner proposed by the Legislature, are statesmanlike, and, in our humble opinion, irrefragable. The bold, manly and patriotic course adopted by the Governor, the straightforward and independent discharge of what he justly conceived to be his duty to the people, despite the log rolling, anathemas and personal denunciations of designing demagogues and disappointed speculators, merits, as it will receive, the cordial commendation of every freeman in the State, who, rejecting selfish considerations, looks for, and advocates, "the greatest good of the greatest number." Once more, we apply to Governor Powell, that proud and well deserved tribute—Well done thou good and faithful servant."

We are indebted to our esteemed friend, Gen. Wm. Johnson, for a pamphlet copy of this valuable document; the publication of which, we regret to say we shall have to lay over until next week.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY.
WILL BE GIVEN THEIR UNDIVIDED ATTENTION TO DISEASES OF THE EYES.
OCULISTS.
WE the undersigned citizens, of Frankfort, Ky., were on the 25th of October last called upon by Dr. J. B. Gentry, to examine four patients who were afflicted with sore eyes of the most virulent character, and were almost blind, and placed under his treatment for their recovery. We did so examine them, and found them afflicted in the most deplorable manner; their eyes were dim and watery, their appetites were lost, and they seemed to suffer the most intense and excruciating pain
—the disease having existed with some of them as far back as four years, preventing them from attending to any business, and rendering their lives miserable. We have been authorized by those patients to certify that in the incredibly short time of four weeks that they are well and able to do their usual work, and that they are fully sensible of the gratitude they feel for the immense benefit they have derived from the scientific manner in which Dr. Gentry has treated them, and that they are fully sensible of the value of the patronage of all afflicted in like manner.

College, and who is a man of great scientific attainments, commending him to the community as being in every respect as competent to treat diseases of the eyes as myself.
The firm will be conducted under the style of Gentry & Yeates, Oculists, Frankfort, Ky.

To the Representatives of Ky.
If you have in your county any one whose affliction corresponds to the above, I may extend the sphere of your usefulness by inducing them to visit Frankfort this winter. With respectful regards, GENTRY & YEATES

ALL who want Axes of the real COLLINS & Co. manufacture should be particular to notice the stamps, as they are genuine and reliable, and in some stamped Collins & Co. and some like axes which are fraudulently sold in some parts of the United States as our manufacture.
They are made in different parts of the country by various persons, and in some cases they are of very inferior quality.
The genuine Collins axes, which have acquired such an extensive reputation, are invariably stamped "COLLINS & CO. N. B." and each axe has a printed label with my signature. It is now more than TWENTY FIVE years since we commenced the business, and we have never sold an axe under the name of Collins &

Incidents of the Mountains for the last twenty years.
TUNSTALL QU'ARRLES has been engaged for sometime in writing a book the title of which will be "Incidents of the mountain for the last thirty years," dedicated to the memory of the late Joseph Evee, an illustrious and patriotic gentleman, who resided at Horseville, Ky., many years. The favorite of his countrymen, and in upright sensible, and kind benefactor to his fellow men. The book contains a history of some of the distinguished individuals who have been prominent in various and varied pursuits for the last fifty and more years past. It also contains a full and complete history of the first settlers of Kentucky, and the means resorted to, to sever the Union and take and doings of a foreign company formed in 1776 and a proposition to purchase the whole of Kentucky at the public domain belonging to it, at other wise-lancous matters. The patrons of the book will find it well worth their money to procure it. This production will appear sometime in May next unretained incident increasing—and will have appended to it the names of the subscribers. He will be accommodating to the author, to have money (one dollar) paid in advance, should the subscribers prefer to do so; but that is left entirely to the choice of the subscriber. The book will contain about 150 or 200 pages.

Salamander Safes.
THE name of Salamander was first applied to Winder's Patent, and introduced by the architect in 1840, who in 1844 purchased the right to manufacture the superiority of Herries's (Winder's) Salamander safe, and he has since endeavored to preserve the patent right by using the composition; other manufacturers, and to evade a lawsuit, made an inferior safe, imitating the exterior in form, style, color of painting, and attaching the name "Salamander," "Improved Salamander," "Fire Proof Salamander," "The Genuine Salamander," &c., &c., and have succeeded in palming off their cheaply manufactured goods upon the public. Wanting the original Salamander, manufactured by its subscriber, should take the precaution to see that they have upon the interior of the door, the words "Winder's Patent Salamander, or Herries's Improved Patent Clamper Safe," which received its name at the Great West Fair, and which have never failed to preserve the contents in case of fire. PREPARED BY DR. C. JACKSON.
AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Equalled by any other preparation in the United States as the curer attend, in many cases after skillful physicians have failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseased action, they cure the most distressing forms of liver power weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are vital, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.
[The Boston Bee.]

The editor said, Dec. 29—

"Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated GERMAN BITTERS the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, and all the other most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters I have used by thousands, and a friend of my fellow-laborer, who has been afflicted with the disease of liver complaint for the space of twenty years, is convinced that in the use of these Bitters, the patient gains calmness and strengthens the nerves, with great consideration. They are pleasant in taste, small, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety under any circumstances." We are speaking from experience, and to the public we advise their use."

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary Publications, says, Aug. 29—

"Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of our physicians as the best medicine for curing liver complaints with efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle of this medicine, and keep it always on hand, for debilitated constitutions will find them of infinite advantage to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems generally." W. C. DENZEE.

The Hon. C. D. HINKLEY, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J., says—

"I have used DR. HOOFLAND'S BITTERS—We have seen no flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. The result of our investigation has confirmed, and must say we found specific in location upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It restores the system, calms the nerves, brings them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing."

"If this medicine was more generally used, we believe the evil chronic cholera, excess, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system the great majority real and imaginary disease emanate. Have them! This medicine will cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia generally. This extraordinary medicine we advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give it, rather than recommend itself. It should, in fact, be ever handy. No other medicine can produce such advantages of merit."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (likewise bearing) the praise of the Union, the last thirty years, and that the strongest testimony in its favor there is more of it used in the practice of the regular physician, Philadelphia, than the other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully vouching that a scientific preparation will meet with quick approval when presented even in this form.

"That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is simply the nature of all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to FEMALE or YOUNG with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

"To those who wish to know where to get the genuine, they have the written authority of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the glass without which they are spurious.

OTRO UNREAS-VEGETABLE
TEA & SAGE
The only sure remedy ever known for Chills and Fever, and warranted to cure, in all cases, if taken according to Directions.

That cure, when taken according to directions will leave the patient free from all Fever after Chill; very seldom requiring more than ONE DOSE make a PERMANENT CURE. A great number of cases, from two to five years standing, have been cured with the First dose, and the Chills have been cured. The beauty of this medicine is, that it is the Chills Twenty Minutes, or less, and the patient is entirely free from Fever, or any kind of the case when any other medicine is used. It supersees all other preparations wherever it has been introduced.

Read what the Editors of the Louisville Democrat say of their own observation:
